- c. The number of ballots and the number of valid signatures must match. If they do not match, the entire site's ballots will be declared null and void and will not be counted.
- d. To win, a candidate must receive a majority (50%+1) of the votes cast. In the event of a plurality or a tie, the Executive Board shall authorize a run-off election within fifteen (15) days between the two (2) candidates receiving the most votes. If, at the outcome of any election the margin of difference is one percent (1%) or less, the entire election in question will be recounted immediately before the election is deemed official by the committee.
- e. When the election is declared official, the results will be delivered to the president. All candidates will be notified of the results as soon as possible. All ballots will remain in the possession of the Executive Board for the remainder of the current school year, after the election is verified as official.

- f. Buildings will be notified if and why ballots were not validated.
- g. Each candidate or his/her designee will have access to the official count, and may monitor all aspects of the committee's procedures. Monitors will limit their participation to observation only.
- h. Candidates will have the power to challenge the outcome of any election if they can show evidence that a volunteer erred in the procedures set forth, and that the outcome of the election may have been affected. Challenges will be made in writing to the Executive Board after the election has been verified by the volunteers within ten (10) days. It will be the responsibility of all Association members to bring to the attention of the committee any irregularities found as soon as possible.
- i. Challenges must be responded to, in writing, by the Executive Board within five (5) work days after the challenge has been submitted. The Executive Board will rule upon any challenges. If the challenge is upheld, the election will be declared void. The Executive Board will then resubmit the ballot to the entire membership.
- j. Should any procedural problem arise that is not specifically spoken to above, the Executive Board will rule on the matter.

Article VIII - Delegate Responsibilities
